ADDRESS.

THIS Book is published with the assistance of the several Railway Companies, on which account the information it contains may be depended upon as being correct and authentic. The necessity for such a work is so obvious as to need no apology; and the merits of it can be best ascertained by a reference to the execution both as regards the style and correctness of the Maps and Plans with which it is illustrated.

To Railway Companies.

G. BRADSHAW would feel particularly obliged by an intimation being forwarded to him at 27, Brown-street, Manchester, of any change in Fares or Times of Departure, on any of the Lines, in order that the correction may be immediately made in the work.

The 3rd Class train takes passengers, private carriages, and horses at the following charges:—From Birmingham to London, Passengers 14s, carriages £3, horse boxes £4, and in proportion for intermediate stations.

Sunday Trains.—Mixed (from Wolverton) 6 45 a.m., *Mail 8½ a.m., from Rugby 1 p.m., *Mixed 1½ p.m., *Mail, Mix. 12 p.m.

The first class trains consist of first class and mail carriages, carrying four inside. (one compartment of which is convertible into a bed carriage, if required) and of carriages carrying six inside.—The mixed trains consist of first class carriages, carrying six inside, and of 2d class carriages open at the side, without linings, cushions or divisions in the compartments.—The Night Mail train consists of first class carriages carrying six inside, and of second class carriages closed, and entirely protected from the weather.—Each carriage has a small roof lamp by day and night.

Passengers are especially recommended to have their names and address, or destination, legibly written on each part of their Luggage when it will be placed on the top of the Coach in which they ride, unless it be in a bag, or such other small package as may conveniently be taken under the seats inside, opposite the one they occupy. If the Passenger be destined for Liverpool or Manchester, and has booked his place through, his luggage will be placed on the Liverpool or Manchester coach, and will not be disturbed till it reaches its destination; and to prevent mistakes the Passenger should shew his ticket to the Porters, and see that his luggage is placed on the proper coach.

A Passenger having paid his fare, and taken out a ticket, may go by any of the Trains of that day, but the ticket will not be available on the following day, unless under special circumstances, when it may be exchanged for a new pass for the day required.

The Trains marked with an asterisk (*) are in conjunction with those of the Grand Junction Railway; sufficient time being allowed at the Birmingham Station, where refreshments are provided, and waiting rooms, with female attendants.

Babs with William to Rain Hill, slept to Warrington, awoke by collision. On my knee to Hartford. - Amused
with her book to Stafford Mans. pa about halfway between Hartford & Warrington over my knee. -
Went to sleep at Stafford
& slept to Birmingham.
